The man, in a downtown cheap restaurant, had eaten but half of his piece of mince pie. He didn't care for the rest and pushed the plate aside. The waitress came along at that point and began to remove the dishes from the table. The man felt like talking.

"It looks like a waste to throw all that pie away," he said.

"Oh, it won't be wasted," said the girl.

"I'll go into the hall along with 'most everything else,' was the matter-of-fact reply.—Denver Post.

A CASE OF IT.

Many More Like It In Barre.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Barre. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

Mrs. Wm. L. Huntington (W. L. Huntington, granite cutter, address High Holborn, says: "A friend insisted upon my using Doan's Kidney Pills. From the amount of faith he evinced in the remedy I was induced to go to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. I had required just such a remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be, for I had been annoyed with kidney complaint for an indefinite period. The pain across my back and hips was very severe. If I stooped or straightened after stooping and when the sharp twinges were not in evidence, there was a continual dull aching. Added to the backache was a trouble with the kidney secretions, a sure indication that the action of the kidneys in some way must upset. I knew after the completion of the first box, from the direct action of my kidneys, that I had at last got hold of the remedy badly wanted, or I never would have bought a second nor a third box. To say I am pleased at the results I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills mildly expresses what I think."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

A RANDOLPH DIFFICULTY.

C. D. Dunham Taken to Randolph on Close Jail Execution.

Randolph, Dec. 7.—C. D. Dunham was taken to Chelsea by Sheriff J. P. Lamson on a writ of close jail execution, executed by Chief of Police Eugene S. Abbott. Last winter Dunham made a contract to cut a certain amount of wood for Abbott, who advanced him a certain sum of money to carry on the work. Dunham failed to get on the amount of wood required and last spring was brought into court to answer for the amount of money advanced. By the court Abbott was given judgment to recover about $40 from Dunham. Dunham is a poor hard working man with a wife and three small children and has failed to pay Abbott the amount. The social terms between Abbott and Dunham have been very unpleasant since the trouble started and the two have had several bitter discussions. A dispute between the two on the postoffice corner Thanksgiving night resulted in a street brawl or free fight. Dunham had the best of the chief of police until the latter drew his club and clubbed Dunham about the head and face, knocking him out for the time being. The next day complaint was lodged with State's Attorney Wilson against Dunham for breach of the peace. Dunham also complained of himself and settled the matter by paying $8.10. Dunham then lodged complaint with the State's attorney against Abbott on the same charge. The case against Abbott is pending, but will be tried as soon as the State's attorney returns from Chelsea where he is in attendance at the Orange county court.

The Clerk—Yes, miss. Does your friend like a mild or—

The Lady—Oh, any kind, so they're cheap.
